INSTRUCTIONS FOR AUTHORS

About Journal:

INDIAN JOURNAL OF APPLIED-BASIC MEDICAL SCIENCES is an open access, peer reviewed journal. The journal is encouraging original research work, articles, original review articles, case reports and short communications of interest to the medical fraternity.

The journal is published by “FORUM: Fraternity Of national Research pUblication Society of Medical sciences”. FORUM is registered UNDER NON-PROFIT SOCIETY AND CHARITY ACT having Registration No. GUJ/17809/Ahmadabad and F/17323/Ahmadabad. This open-access journal is published online as well as in print format since 1999. It has remained one of the oldest and pioneering journals in Gujarat, India. It has also influenced and inspired many other Indian journals with advancing years.

Aim and scope of Journal:

The aim of this journal is focused on integrating applied basic medical sciences. These are subjects taught in medical and paramedical colleges by academic and clinical faculties. FORUM is a platform that delivers scientific data and information by applied basic medical colleges of India which are useful for investigators in various disciplines of medical sciences. The journal is a good platform for researchers and faculties in various medical subjects both horizontally and vertically as always emphasized by the Medical Council of India. It opens a scope for expanding the horizon of integrated researches and research in medical education per se. It is observed by editorials that there is a genuine deficit in enhancing the researches of applied basic medical sciences. Thence, the Indian Journal of Applied Basic Medical Sciences provides a communication channel that aims and tries to fulfill this deficit.
